

BC FORUM works for you

BC FORUM represents thousands of retired and active workers from unions affiliated to the BC Federation of Labour.

For retirees, BC FORUM keeps the strength of the union movement on your side after you've left the workforce. For active workers, BC FORUM helps you plan for retirement – because leaving work should not mean leaving the movement.

By working together in solidarity, we retain bargaining power to spotlight issues important to seniors, demand the attention of legislators, and negotiate the best benefits for our members.

BC FORUM is a registered non-profit society for union members age 50 or better. We are dedicated to representing the well-being of members, their families and their spouses. We are supported and endorsed by WE Consulting & Benefits Services Ltd. and the BC Federation of Labour.

Together, we can continue to enjoy the relationships and benefits of being part of the union movement. Because no matter what age we are, together we're strong.

We fight for real change

BC FORUM is unique – the only seniors' group that exclusively represents active and retired union members and is directly affiliated to the labour movement. As a BC Federation of Labour affiliate, BC FORUM is represented on the Executive Council, the governing body of the BCFED. We appoint delegates to labour councils to keep us informed and active on local issues. We meet regularly with designated representatives of BCFED affiliated unions to support each other's work.

Nationally, BC FORUM is active on the executive of the Congress of Union Retirees of Canada (CURC), participating in nationwide campaigns, lobbies, rallies and petition drives.

In addition to our connection to labour, BC FORUM has a role on the Council of Senior Citizens' Organizations of BC (COSCO), is affiliated to the National Pensioners Federation, is on the Board of Directors of the Union Protein Project, and is active in the BC Labour Heritage Society, BC Health Coalition, and the Stephen Lewis Foundation's Grandmothers to Grandmothers campaign.

In solidarity with you, the labour movement and our allies, we are working to build healthy communities, and improve the lives of people here at home and around the world.

Together, we're strong.

We speak out

Since 1995, the BC Federation of Retired Union Members has advocated for retired and nearly retired workers. It is the recognized voice for senior unionists in BC.

In our workplaces, we've all seen that when you want action on an issue, it's hard to get results on your own. That's when we turned to our unions. It's no different when we're retired or preparing for retirement. We're stronger together. That's why thousands of people like you are joining BC FORUM to take on the issues that matter:

- Promoting and protecting retirement security for seniors, retirees and our children and grandchildren, and lifting seniors out of poverty by increasing the CPP, OAS and GIS.
- Fighting for a national Pharmacare program and an end to unfair taxes like regressive MSP premiums.
- Defending public health care services from privatization and promoting quality public health care.
- Blowing the whistle on ageism and elder abuse.
- Fighting for publicly delivered quality home care and home support services so seniors can live with dignity.

Together with our allies, we hold politicians to account, and work to defeat them when they fail to deliver. We organize community forums and rallies. We publish a high quality news magazine and website to keep members informed and involved with current issues and initiatives.

We are dedicated to serving.
